

I am outraged by the actions of Sinclair Broadcasting. It is against the American way to allow such undue influence in an election. If the FCC does not act to stop this it will also sully the reputaiton of the Chairman, who will leave himself open to accusations he has allowed family interest and political partisanship to rule his decision making.